

DIGNITY

FEBURARY 4-6, 2010

Modern day slavery in our own city.

Every day women and children are exploited across our city and across our globe. They are usually the powerless and marginalized with few to plead their cause. What if we changed all that? What if we could see their dignity?

Join City Church-Eastside, One Twelve Gallery and a host of community partners as we link arms together, combatting sex trafficking and modern day slavery through the lens of art, media and speech.

FEBURARY 4 - 6, 2010

Thursday 7 - 9pm

Artist talk with Ted Haddock, director of photography at International Justice Mission. Film screening with Gregg Helvey, writer/director of Kavi, a short film on modern day slavery in India.

Friday 6 - 8pm

Grand Opening of One Twelve Gallery and photography exhibit: The Works of Ted Haddock.

Saturday 9:30 - 12:30pm

Atlanta united: Come meet and hear from local groups working to combat sex trafficking in our city.

LOCATED AT

112 Krog St. Suite 5
Atlanta, GA 30307
www.onetwelvegallery.com

FREE EVENT